MARVELOUS PURSUITS

Vocal Quartet and Piano 4-hands

Program Notes: Marvelous Pursuits

Marvelous Pursuits is a lighthearted setting of eight selections from the humorous cycle of the same name by the distinguished poet Barbara Goldberg. Inspired by a fifth-century Japanese pillow book, Marvelous Pursuits is the wryly comical story of a man with two mistresses who desires nothing but peace and tranquility, which of course he will not find. His mistresses, Rosa and Blanca, sing as a pair, representing opposite natures. Meanwhile, the protagonist's wife Martha is having an affair with the piano tuner. It is only after learning of this affair that the protagonist returns to his wife who "...in betrayal's light is suddenly, irresistably dear."

The New York Festival Players commissioned Marvelous Pursuits and premiered it at the Huntington Museum in Huntington, New York. I am grateful to poet Barbara Goldberg for her delightful collaboration and to the residency at Yaddo that supported its composition. For more information, visit www.judithshatin.com –JS
